Instructions

1. Combine crushed graham crackers and butter in small bowl. Spoon a heaping tablespoon of the crumbs into each cup of a mini cheesecake pan. With fingers or round end of a wooden spoon, press crust down evenly.
2. In a large mixing bowl, beat heavy cream until medium peaks form. Set aside.
3. In a medium mixing bowl, beat cream cheese, sugar, salt, and vanilla until smooth. Add cream cheese mixture to heavy cream and beat until incorporated.
4. Gently fold in Robin Eggs.
5. Divide batter evenly better between the cups. (You can use a scoop or pastry bag to pipe in to the cups.)
6. Refrigerate for at least 6 hours to set or overnight for best results.
7. Serve with a dollop of whipping cream and garnish with a Whopper.

*Don't chop in a food processor. You want larger pieces than you'll get in a food processor.

Instructions

1. Measure out 3 cups of marshmallows.
2. Line an 8x11 glass dish or a half-sized cookie sheet with parchment paper.
3. Pour chocolate chips into a glass or ceramic bowl and microwave for 1 minute 30 seconds. Let sit 2 minutes. Gently stir and microwave for another 15-20 seconds if chocolate isn't fully melted.
4. Add marshmallows and stir to coat.
5. Transfer chocolatey marshmallows to your prepared pan. Using a rubber scraper, make sure marshmallows extend to the edge of the pan. Press down slightly to make it all somewhat even. Shake on any sprinkles you'd like to decorate the bark with.
6. Put in the freezer for about 20 minutes, until chocolate is set. You want to use the freezer so that it cools the mixture as quickly as possible- you don't want those marshmallows to melt!
7. Remove from the freezer and let sit on the counter to return to room temperature. Cut into pieces. If you use a cookie cutter, I suggest using a metal one and spraying the edges with cooking spray prior to cutting.

Help the bunny find his basket

HE IS RISEN

When they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had been rolled away. As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man dressed in a white robe sitting on the right side, and they were alarmed.

“Don’t be alarmed,” he said. “You are looking for Jesus who was crucified. He has risen! He is not here.”

Mark 16:4-6

The Resurrection

On the first day of the week, very early in the _____, the women took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. They found the _____ rolled away from the tomb, but when they entered, they did not find the _____ of the Lord Jesus. While they were wondering about this, suddenly two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning stood beside them. In their fright the women bowed down with their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the among the dead? He is not here; he has _____! Remember how he told you, while he was still with you in Galilee: 'The Son of Man must be delivered over to the hands of sinners, be crucified and on the _____ day be raised again.'" Then they remembered his words.

When they came back from the tomb, they told all these things to the Eleven and to all the others. It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the others with them who told this to the apostles. But they did not _____ the women, because their words seemed to them like nonsense. Peter, however, got up and _____ to the tomb. Bending over, he saw the strips of linen lying by themselves, and he went away, wondering to himself what had happened.
